To the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth.

The undersigned inhabitants of the city of Boston, residing in the town of Roxbury, do hereby deplore the sin and reproach of such a circumstance as is the present disregard of the Constitution and laws of the United States, and pray that your Honors would be pleased to take into your serious consideration the following important points:

1. That the recent overthrow of the Constitution is an imposition on the people and an injury to the country, and that the continued existence of such a government is a menace to the safety and welfare of the United States.

2. That the recent actions of the executive and legislative branches of the government are unconstitutional and illegal, and that they are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land.

3. That the recent actions of the executive and legislative branches of the government are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land, and that they are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land.

4. That the recent actions of the executive and legislative branches of the government are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land, and that they are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land.

5. That the recent actions of the executive and legislative branches of the government are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land, and that they are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land.

6. That the recent actions of the executive and legislative branches of the government are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land, and that they are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land.

7. That the recent actions of the executive and legislative branches of the government are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land, and that they are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land.

8. That the recent actions of the executive and legislative branches of the government are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land, and that they are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land.

9. That the recent actions of the executive and legislative branches of the government are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land, and that they are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land.

10. That the recent actions of the executive and legislative branches of the government are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land, and that they are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land.

11. That the recent actions of the executive and legislative branches of the government are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land, and that they are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land.

12. That the recent actions of the executive and legislative branches of the government are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land, and that they are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land.

13. That the recent actions of the executive and legislative branches of the government are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land, and that they are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land.

14. That the recent actions of the executive and legislative branches of the government are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land, and that they are calculated to subvert the Constitution and the laws of the land.
