Old Hundredth

Invocation

Confession

In unison:
Eternal God, in whom we live and move and have our being, whose face is hidden from us by our sin, and whose mercy we forget: Cleanse us from all offenses, and deliver us from proud thoughts and vain desires; that humbly we may draw near to thee, confessing our faults, confiding in thy grace, and finding in thee our refuge and our strength, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Assurance of Pardon

Greetings

Children now join their teachers in the Church School.

The Peace

All are invited to join in the singing of Hymn No. 27, verse 1.

At the Offertory
The Lamb

Sir John Tavener (1944–2013)

Little Lamb who made thee
Dost thou know who made thee
Gave thee life & bid thee feed.
By the stream & o’er the mead;
Gave thee clothing of delight,
Softest clothing wooly bright;
Gave thee such a tender voice,
Making all the vales rejoice!

Little Lamb God bless thee.
Little Lamb I’ll tell thee.
Little Lamb I’ll tell thee!
He is called by thy name,
For he calls himself a Lamb:
He is meek & he is mild,
He became a little child:
I a child & thou a lamb,
We are called by his name.

William Blake (1757–1827)
Here an offering is received for the work of the Church within and beyond the University. Ushers will begin the collection from the back of the Church forward.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

GLORIA from Office of Holy Communion, Collegium Regale
Herbert Howells

Glory be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will towards men.

We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

Thou that takes away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.

For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

SERMON

Persecuted for a Purpose

Text: “Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.”

Through your Spirit, you replenish us and call us to the fullness of life. Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, we lift our voices as we sing:

ANTHEM

When to the Temple Mary Went

When to the temple Mary went, Help now thy servants, gracious Lord,
And brought the Holy Child, That we may ever be
Him did the aged Simeon see, As once the faithful Simeon was,
As it had been revealed. Rejoicing but in Thee;
He took up Jesus in his arms And when we must from earth departure take,
And blessing God he said: May gently fall asleep and with Thee wake.
In peace I now depart, my Saviour having seen,
The Hope of Israel, the Light of men.

A service of Compline, which combines candlelight, plainsong, polyphony, prayer, scripture, and silence, will be held on Thursday evening, February 6, at 10:00 p.m. Music is provided by the Harvard University Choir. All are welcome.
Herbert Howells was born in Gloucestershire, England, and studied with Sir Charles Stanford and Charles Wood at the Royal College of Music in London. He was the most important English composer of the generation to succeed Elgar, Vaughan Williams, and Holst, and his contribution to the renaissance of English choral music in the twentieth century is unparalleled. In 1941 Howells was appointed Acting Organist of St. John's College, Cambridge, and in 1943 he composed his famous morning and evening Canticles for King's College, Cambridge (the Collegium Regale service). In 1956 Howells revisited the themes of this now-classic work in his Holy Communion service which once again displays the composer's natural aptitude for counterpoint, and his flair for sheer beauty of vocal harmony; this morning the Harvard University Choir presents the majestic Gloria and the haunting Agnus Dei.

The offertory is Sir John Tavener’s beloved setting of William Blake’s The Lamb, and the communion motet is Johannes Eccard’s When to the Temple Mary Went: both works are fitting for today’s celebration of Candlemas.

An outstanding organist, Herbert Howells had a natural gift for improvisation, and was a composer committed to illustrating the full range of coloristic possibilities of the twentieth century organ. The prelude is in homage to the world of the Elizabethan virginalists, reinterpreted through Howells’s distinctive harmonic vocabulary.

Frank Bridge also studied composition with Stanford at the Royal College of Music, and is perhaps best remembered today as Benjamin Britten’s teacher; he was, however, an extremely influential composer and conductor in his own right. Today’s postlude is the energetic final movement of Bridge’s well-known Three Pieces for Organ (1905).
