CALL TO WORSHIP

Minister: Your steadfast love, O Lord, extends to the heavens.
People: Your righteousness is like the mighty mountains.
Minister: How precious is your steadfast love, O God!
People: We feast on the abundance of your house,
Minister: For with you is the fountain of life;
People: In your light we see light.

INVOCATION

CONFESSION

In unison:
Eternal God, in whom we live and move and have our being, whose face is hidden from us by our sin, and whose mercy we forget: Cleanse us from all offenses, and deliver us from proud thoughts and vain desires; that humbly we may draw near to thee, confessing our faults, confiding in thy grace, and finding in thee our refuge and our strength, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

THE LORD’S PRAYER

In unison:
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

ANTHEM

Laudibus in Sanctis

Laudibus in sanctis Dominum celebrate supremum,
Firmamenta sonent inclita facta Dei.
Inclita facta Dei cantate, sacraque potentis
Voce potestatem saepe sonate manus.
Magnificum Domini cantet tuba martia nomen,
Pieria Domino concelebrate lira.
Lauda Dei, resonent resonantia tympana summi,
Alta sacri resonent organa laude Dei.
Hunc arguta canant tenui psalteria corda,
Hunc agili laudet laeta chorea pede.
Concava divinas effundant cymbala laudes,
Cymbala dulcisona laude repleta Dei,
Omne quod aetheris in mundo vescitur auris,
Halleluia canat, tempus in omne Deo.

Celebrate the Lord most high in holy praises:
Let the firmament echo the glorious deeds of God.
Sing ye the glorious deeds of God, and with holy voice
Sound forth oft the power of his mighty hand.
Let the warlike trumpet sing the great name of the Lord:
Celebrate the Lord with Pierian lyre.
Let resounding timbrels ring to the praise of the most-high God,
Lofty organs peal to the praise of the holy God.
Him let melodious psalteries sing with fine string,
Him let joyful dance praise with nimble foot.
Let hollow cymbals pour forth divine praises,
Sweet-sounding cymbals filled with the praise of God.
Let everything in the world that feeds upon the air of heaven
Sing Alleluia to God for evermore.

Psalm 150, paraphrased

LESSON FROM THE NEW TESTAMENT

Luke 18:1–8
ANTHEM

O Clap Your Hands

O clap your hands together, all ye people; O sing unto God with the voice of melody. For the Lord is high and to be feared; he is the great King of all the earth. He shall subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet. He shall choose out an heritage for us, even the worship of Jacob, whom he loved.

God is gone up with a merry noise, and the Lord with the sound of the trumpet. O sing praises, sing praises unto our God: O sing praises unto the Lord our King. For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with the understanding. God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon his holy seat. For God, which is highly exalted, doth defend the earth, as it were with a shield.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalm 47

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Minister: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Minister: Let us pray.
People: For we put our trust in you.
Minister: In you, Lord, is our hope;
People: And we shall never hope in vain.

Each time the minister says “Lord, in your mercy,” the congregation will respond with “Hear our prayer.”

THE GRACE

The Grace of Our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us all. Amen.

MUSIC NOTES

William Byrd represents the pinnacle of artistic achievement in the Tudor period: a prolific and versatile composer in virtually all genres, his music could be heard in the great cathedrals, in private chapels, at court, and in domestic amateur music-making. Indeed, the quality of his output even transcended the bitter religious divisions of the time, and his music was admired and performed by Protestants and Roman Catholics alike. Byrd’s Cantiones Sacrae (1591) opens with the ebullient Laudibus in Sanctis, a stylized paraphrase of Psalm 150. This work shows Byrd to be a complete master of the new late-sixteenth-century style: full of madrigalisms, it uses rhythmic rhetoric, syncopation, melodic representation of the words, and a spritely triple-time section in which the music seems to dance before God.

Orlando Gibbons was born into a musical family: his father was a civic musician who migrated between Oxford and Cambridge, and his brother, Edward, was a Lay Clerk in the choir of King’s College, Cambridge, where the young Orlando would receive his early musical education as a chorister. He is first listed on the payroll of the Chapel Royal in 1603, and two years later he would become the senior chapel organist — a post he would hold for the rest of his life. He became one of the king’s private virginalists in 1619, and in 1623 he was appointed organist of Westminster Abbey. When he died suddenly of apoplexy in 1625, England lost its most gifted organist and composer — a musician renowned both for his keyboard dexterity and his ability to write with equal facility for both sacred and secular forces. O Clap Your Hands is Gibbons’s grandest work: a contrapuntal masterpiece, its relentless rhythmic drive and dramatic exchanges between the various vocal groupings — such as the shouts of joy at “O sing praises” — create an infectious sense of exuberance.

This period also witnesses the first great flowering of keyboard music in England, and both of today’s choral composers were also renowned as skilled keyboardists. The prelude is a selection of short works that could have been used in sacred or secular settings; each work displays the intricate figurations so characteristic of keyboard music of the time. In the sixteenth century, the fantasia was still an unclassified genre containing elements from a wide variety of different styles: for the postlude, Byrd fashions a virtuosic work, combining intricate polyphony and beautiful homophony. It is contained in the primary source of keyboard music from the late Elizabethan and early Jacobean period in England, the Fitzwilliam Virginal Book.
