The Harvard University Choir presents

The 105th Annual Christmas Carol Service
Welcome to the Memorial Church and to America’s oldest carol service. In 1910, the newly appointed University Organist and Choirmaster, Archibald T. Davison, and Plummer Professor of Christian Morals, Edward C. Moore, devised the first annual Christmas Carol Service for Harvard University. The liturgy they prepared has remained virtually unchanged since: three lessons from scripture, interspersed with choral and congregational carols, beginning with “Adeste, Fideles” sung in Latin. Over a century later, this service continues to be a cherished part of the festive season for the Harvard and Cambridge communities. As a courtesy, we ask that you silence all electronic devices. Photography and the use of recording equipment are not permitted during the service.
One of the great treasures of the Christian world is the abundant heritage of Christmas songs; for, in the words of Robert Herrick,

\text{What sweeter music can we bring} \\
\text{Than a carol, for to sing} \\
\text{The birth of this our heavenly King?} \\
\text{Awake the voice! Awake the string!}

Indeed this most familiar of narratives — with its cast of angels and shepherds, kings and camels — continues to be a source of inspiration for poets and composers alike: through its constant retelling, this miraculous story retains its freshness. Tonight, we contemplate the Christmas message from a variety of countries and eras, with festive offerings from England, Germany, Italy, New Zealand, Poland, Scotland, Switzerland, the United States of America, and Wales.

Our service opens in the Memorial Room, which documents the names of Harvard’s men who perished in World War One: on the centenary of that conflict’s sad beginning, this very building adds its note of poignancy to the proceedings. Towards the end of the service, the congregation is invited to participate in the singing of “Silent Night” in English or in German: this practice memorializes that most moving episode of one hundred years ago when, on Christmas Day 1914, soldiers from both sides of the trenches laid down their arms and climbed into no-man’s land to sing this beloved carol.

In the same spirit of remembrance and commemoration we note the untimely death of composer Stephen Paulus earlier this fall, with his majestic carol Pilgrim Jesus; Sir John Tavener’s death one year ago is marked through his haunting setting of the traditional Polish carol, Hajej, Nynjej.

The centerpiece of this year’s service is the world premiere of Harvard University Choir alumnus Ronald Perera’s A Soldier’s Carol. A composer of operas, song cycles, chamber, choral, and orchestral works, Mr. Perera studied with Leon Kirchner, Randall Thompson, and Mario Davidovsky, and has taught at Syracuse University, Dartmouth College, and Smith College. His cantata, “The Light Here Kindled” — a setting of select verses from William Bradford’s collection Of Plimoth Plantation — was commissioned for Harvard’s 350th anniversary celebrations in 1986. A Soldier’s Carol is a setting of lines by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, through which we note the ongoing commemorations surrounding the 150th anniversary of the Civil War. Longfellow’s poem — originally titled Christmas Bells — was penned in December 1863, while the poet nursed his eldest son Charley back to health following a gunshot wound during the Battle of New Hope Church. Our service also features the premiere of Composer-in-Residence Carson Cooman’s Wise Men Came Journeying, alongside works by Leo Sowerby, Daniel Pinkham, Eric Whitacre, and Jay Althouse, which demonstrate the continuing vitality of the American carol tradition.

Both of the organs housed in the Memorial Church — the Charles B. Fisk and Peter J. Gomes Memorial Organ in the rear gallery, and the Jane Slaughter Hardenbergh Memorial Organ in Appleton Chapel — are featured during the service, and in festive voluntaries performed by Assistant University Organist and Choirmaster, Thomas Sheehan.
THE 105TH ANNUAL CHRISTMAS CAROL SERVICE

The congregation is asked to remain silent upon entering the Memorial Church.

Alma Redemptoris Mater

Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina (c. 1525–1594)

Alma Redemptoris Mater, quae pervia caeli porta manes, et stella maris, succure cadenti surgere qui curat populo: tu quae genuisti natura mirante, tuum sanctum genitorem; virgo prius ac posterius, Gabrielis ab ore sumens illud Ave, peccatorum miserere.

_Loving Mother of the Redeemer, who remains the gateway to heaven and star of the sea, help your fallen people who strive to rise: you who gave birth, while nature marveled, to your holy creator: a virgin before and after receiving that “Ave” from the mouth of Gabriel, have mercy on our sins._

Love Came Down at Christmas

Leo Sowerby (1895–1968)

Love came down at Christmas,
Love all lovely, love divine;
Love was born at Christmas,
Star and angels gave the sign.

Worship we the Godhead,
Love incarnate, love divine;
Worship we our Jesus:
But wherewith for sacred sign?

Love shall be our token,
Love be yours and love be mine,
Love to God and all men,
Love for plea and gift and sign.

_Christina Rossetti (1830–1894)_

Lovely Vine

Behold a lovely vine
Here in this desert ground;
The blossoms shoot and promise fruit
And tender grapes are found.

Its circling branches rise
And shade the neighboring lands;
With lovely charms she spreads her arms
With clusters in her hands.

This city can't be hid,
It's built upon a hill;
The dazzling light it shines so bright
It doth the valleys fill.

Ye trees which lofty stand,
And stars with sparkling light;
Ye Christians hear both far and near,
'Tis joy to see the sight.

Shall feeble nature sing,
And man not join the lays?
With lofty voice proclaim the joys
And join in songs of praise!

Glory to God on high,
For his redeeming grace;
The blessed dove came from above
To save our ruined race.

From Divine Hymns (1800), edited by Joshua Smith

CAROL

What Sweeter Music

What sweeter music can we bring
Than a carol, for to sing
The birth of this our heavenly King?
Awake the voice! Awake the string!

Dark and dull night, fly hence away,
And give the honor to this day
That sees December turned to May.

Why does the chilling winter's morn
Smile, like a field beset with corn?
Or smell like a meadow newly shorn
Thus on the sudden? Come and see
The cause, why things thus fragrant be:

'Tis he is born. whose quickening birth
Gives life and lustre, public mirth,
To heaven and the under-earth.

We see him come, and know him ours,
Who, with his sunshine and his showers,
Turns all the patient ground to flowers.

The darling of the world is come,
And fit it is, we find a room
To welcome him, to welcome him.

The nobler part of all the house here, is the heart.
Which we will give him: and bequeath
This holly, and this ivy wreath.
To do him honor, who's our King,
And Lord of all this reveling.

Robert Herrick (1591–1674), alt.
SECOND LESSON

Luke 2:1–14

CAROL

“Gloria in excelsis Deo” from Christmas Cantata
Daniel Pinkham ’44 (1923–2006)

Gloria in excelsis Deo et in terra pax hominibus bonae voluntatis.

Jubilate Deo omnis terra, servite Dominum in laetitia.
Introite in conspectus ejus, in exultatione.
Scitote quoniam Dominus ipse est Deus:
Ipse fecit nos et non ipsi nos.

Alleluia!

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace and good will to men.

O be joyful in the Lord, ye nations, with gladness serve the Lord.
Come before his presence; come unto him with singing, joy, and in exultation.
Now know ye: know that the Lord he is God, strong and mighty.
He created us and not we ourselves.

Alleluia!

Traditional Latin and Psalm 100:2–3

CAROL

Ding Dong! Merrily on High
Traditional English Carol
Arranged by Charles Wood (1866–1926)

Ding dong! merrily on high in heav’n the bells are ringing;
Ding dong! verily the sky is riv’n with angel singing.
Gloria, Hosanna in excelsis!

E’en so here below, below, let steeple bells be swungen,
And “Io, io, io!” by priest and people sungen.

Pray you, dutifully prime your matin chime, ye ringers;
May you beautifully rime your evetime song, ye singers.

George Ratcliffe Woodward (1848–1934)
Angels we have heard on high, singing sweetly through the night,
Shepherds, why this jubilee? Why these songs of happy cheer?
Come to Bethlehem and see him whose birth the angels sing,
See him in a manger laid whom the angels praise above;

and the mountains in reply echoing their brave delight.
What great brightness did you see? What glad tidings did you hear?
Come, adore on bended knee Christ, the Lord, the newborn King.
Mary, Joseph, lend your aid, while we raise our hearts in love.

Gloria in excelsis Deo.
Gloria in excelsis Deo.
CAROL
I Wonder As I Wander
Carl Rütti (b. 1949)

I wonder as I wander out under the sky,
How Jesus the Savior did come for to die.
For poor on’ry people like you and like I.
I wonder as I wander out under the sky.

When Mary birthed Jesus ’twas in a cow’s stall,
With wise men and farmers and shepherds and all.
But high from the heavens a star’s light did fall,
And promise of ages it then did recall.

If Jesus had wanted for any wee thing,
A star in the sky, or a bird on the wing,
Or all of God’s angels in heav’n for to sing,
He surely could have it, ’cause he was the King.

John Jacob Niles (1892–1980)

CAROL
A Soldier’s Carol
Ronald Perera ’63, GSA ’67

Commissioned for the 105th Annual Christmas Carol Service, December 2014

I heard the bells on Christmas Day
Their old, familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet
The words repeat
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

And thought how, as the day had come,
The belfries of all Christendom
Had rolled along
The unbroken song
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

Till, ringing, singing on its way,
The world revolved from night to day,
A voice, a chime,
A chant sublime
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

Then from each black, accursed mouth
The cannon thundered in the South,
And with the sound
The carols drowned
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

It was as if an earthquake rent
The hearth-stones of a continent,
And made forlorn
The households born
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

And in despair I bowed my head;
“There is no peace on earth,” I said:
“For hate is strong,
And mocks the song
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!”

Then pealed the bells more loud and deep:
“God is not dead; nor doth he sleep!
The Wrong shall fail,
The Right prevail,
With peace on earth, good-will to men!”

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow (1807–1882)

Wise Men Came Journeying

Carson P. Cooman ’04 (b. 1982)

Composed for the 105th Annual Christmas Carol Service, December 2014

Wise men came journeying, once, long ago, camel hooves swirling the sand dune and snow,
gold in the saddlebag, myrrh in the jar,
incense to honor the Child of the star.

Wise are the travelers led to move on following signs where the Christ light has shone, facing the deserts and crossing the lines,
heeding no limits that culture defines.

Wise are each one of us looking for change,
stargazer people, respecting the strange,
inner and outer worlds open to light,
centered on seeing the real and the right.

Wise ones keep journeying all through their days bringing their gifts to the source of their praise, risking the Promise with all they hold dear,
seeking God’s peace at the door of the year.

Rocking

Little Jesus, sweetly sleep, do not stir;
We will lend a coat of fur,
We will rock you, rock you, rock you,
We will rock you, rock you, rock you,
See the fur to keep you warm,
Snugly round your tiny form.

Mary's little baby, sleep, sweetly sleep,
Sleep in comfort, slumber deep;
We will rock you, rock you, rock you,
We will rock you, rock you, rock you,
We will serve you all we can,
Darling, darling little man.

Pilgrim Jesus

Jesus! Christus! Jesus! Natus!

In the manger of my body
Leaps the tiny child, and his breath
Is the word—the dance of God.

Corpus! Beatus! Peregrinus! Natus!

In the ocean of my head
The steadfast ship rides tide and storm
On its pilgrim crossing.

Oceanus! Peregrinus! Christus! Natus!

In the orchard of my heart
Springs the singing tree. Its root
Is faith and its sweet fruit charity.

Cor! Arbor! Amor! Christus!

Riding ship, springing tree,
And in the manger leaps the child
Who is the word—the dance of God.

Jesus! Peregrinus! Jesus! Natus!

Look-A That Star

Arranged by Jay Althouse (b. 1951)

Look-a that star shine in the night.
Showin’ the way to Bethlehem.

Mary and Joseph saw that star.
Went on a journey traveled afar.
Showed the way to a stable bare.
Mary gave birth to a baby there.

Mary had a little baby boy.
Filled the world with hope and joy.
Heavenly angels dressed in white
Sang for joy that holy night.

Look-a that star in the Eastern sky.
Look-a that star and wonder why.
Baby came down from heaven on high,
Showin’ the way to glory.

Oh, look-a that star, showin’ the way home.
Shine on in the night.

Hark! the Herald Angels Sing
The congregation standing

1 Hark! the herald angels sing, “Glory to the new-born King;
2 Christ, by highest heaven adored, Christ, the ever lasting Lord!
3 Hail the heaven-born Prince of Peace! Hail the Sun of Righteousness!

Peace on earth, and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled!
Late in time behold him come, off-spring of the Vir-gin’s womb.
Light and life to all he brings, risen with healing in his wings,

Joyful, all ye nations, rise, join the triumph of the skies;
Veiled in flesh the God-head see, hail the in-car-nate deity, mild he lays his glory by, born that we no more may die,

With the an-gelic host pro-claim, “Christ is born in Beth-le-hem!”
pleased as man with us to dwell, Je-sus, our Em-man-u-el.
born to raise us from the earth, born to give us sec-ond birth.

Hark! the herald angels sing, “Glory to the new-born King!”
