The faculty is by far the best I have experienced. I have graduated from four universities and have been exposed to countless professors and teachers. Nowhere other than Harvard have I seen such devotion to student success and nowhere else have I received an education of similar quality. The resources available at Harvard are exceptional and encourage discovery. Intellectual curiosity at Harvard was rewarded, not discouraged, or punished. The faculty and resources are what make this program. I’m grateful that Extension is based on earning one’s admission.

I loved my experience at Harvard Extension. The diversity among students and faculty was so rich and made for a great learning atmosphere. I met some great people and the abundance of resources really stimulated my intellectual curiosity. I wish I was still taking classes.
