History of Medicine Working Group

SEPT. 14  Opening Panel Discussion with Profs. Allan M. Brandt, David S. Jones, and Susan M. Reverby

SEPT. 21  Colleen Lanier-Christensen (History of Science)  “Managing a ‘Moon Shot’ for Cancer: Contract Research at the National Cancer Institute”

SEPT. 28  Nils Hansson (University of Cologne)  “Enacting Excellency: Awarding Nobel Prizes (or Not) to Surgeons in the Twentieth Century”

OCT. 5  Frank Blibo (History of Science)  “The ‘New’ Scientific Racism and the Misjudgement of Man: Rationalizing Human Difference in a (Post-)Genomic Age”

OCT. 19  James T. Downs (Visiting Fellow in Medical Anthropology and The Weatherhead Initiative on Global History)  “The Coefficient in Epidemiology: The International Cholera Epidemics and the American Civil War”

Dinner is served at working group meetings. For catering purposes and to receive any pre-circulated materials, e-mail to angelrodriguez@h.harvard.edu

MONDAYS 6-8pm  Science Center 469
History of Medicine Working Group

MONDAYS 6-8pm  Science Center 469  1 OXFORD ST., CAMBRIDGE MA

FALL 2015

Sept. 14 Opening Panel Discussion with Profs. Allan M. Brandt, David S. Jones, and Susan M. Reverby

Sept. 21 Colleen Lanier-Christensen (History of Science) “Managing a ‘Moon Shot’ for Cancer: Contract Research at the National Cancer Institute”

Sept. 28 Nils Hansson (University of Cologne) “Enacting Excellency: Awarding Nobel Prizes (or Not) to Surgeons in the Twentieth Century”

Oct. 5 Frank Blibo (History of Science) “The ‘New’ Scientific Racism and the Misjudgement of Man: Rationalizing Human Difference in a (Post)-Genomic Age”

Oct. 19 James T. Downs (Visiting Fellow in Medical Anthropology and The Weatherhead Initiative on Global History) “The Coefficient in Epidemiology: The International Cholera Epidemics and the American Civil War”

Nov. 30 Michael Knipper (Justus Liebig University and Harvard Medical School) “The Alma Ata Declaration of 1978 and the Human Right to Health: Towards an Historical Understanding of Primary Health Care”

Dinner is served at working group meetings. For catering purposes and to receive any pre-circulated materials, rsvp to angelrodriguez@g.harvard.edu
FALL 2015

History of Medicine Working Group

SEPT. 14 Opening Panel Discussion with Profs. Allan M. Brandt, David S. Jones, and Susan M. Reverby

SEPT. 21 Colleen Lanier-Christensen (History of Science)
“Managing a ‘Moon Shot’ for Cancer: Contract Research at the National Cancer Institute”

SEPT. 28 Nils Hansson (University of Cologne)
“Enacting Excellency: Awarding Nobel Prizes (or Not) to Surgeons in the Twentieth Century”

OCT. 5 Frank Blibo (History of Science)
“The ‘New’ Scientific Racism and the Misjudgment of Man: Rationalizing Human Difference in a (Post-)Genomic Age”

OCT. 19 James T. Downs (Visiting Fellow in Medical Anthropology and The Weatherhead Initiative on Global History)
“The Coefficient in Epidemiology: The International Cholera Epidemics and the American Civil War”

OCT. 26 Diane Paul (University of Massachusetts Boston and Harvard Museum of Comparative Zoology)
“Truby King, Infant Welfare, and the Boundaries of Eugenics”

NOV. 2 Lucas Müller (HASTS Program, MIT)

NOV. 9 John Gee (History)

NOV. 30 Michael Knipper (Justus Liebig University and Harvard Medical School)
“The Alma Ata Declaration of 1978 and the Human Right to Health: Towards an Historical Understanding of Primary Health Care”

Dinner is served at working group meetings. For catering purposes and to receive any pre-circulated materials, RSVP to angelrodriguez@g.harvard.edu

MONDAYS 6-8pm Science Center 469 1 OXFORD ST., CAMBRIDGE MA
History of Medicine Working Group

FALL 2015

MONDAYS 6-8pm
Science Center 469
1 OXFORD ST., CAMBRIDGE MA

SEPT. 14 Opening Panel Discussion with Profs. Allan M. Brandt, David S. Jones, and Susan M. Reverby

SEPT. 21 Colleen Lanier-Christensen (History of Science)
“Managing a ‘Moon Shot’ for Cancer: Contract Research at the National Cancer Institute”

SEPT. 28 Nils Hansson (University of Cologne)
“Enacting Excellency: Awarding Nobel Prizes (or Not) to Surgeons in the Twentieth Century”

OCT. 5 Frank Blibo (History of Science)
“The ‘New’ Scientific Racism and the Misjudgment of Man: Rationalizing Human Difference in a (Post-)Genomic Age”

OCT. 19 James T. Downs (Visiting Fellow in Medical Anthropology and The Weatherhead Initiative on Global History)
“The Coefficient in Epidemiology: The International Cholera Epidemics and the American Civil War”

OCT. 26 Diane Paul (University of Massachusetts Boston and Harvard Museum of Comparative Zoology)
“Truby King, Infant Welfare, and the Boundaries of Eugenics”

NOV. 2 Lucas Müller (HASTS Program, MIT)

NOV. 9 John Gee (History)

NOV. 30 Michael Knipper (Justus Liebig University and Harvard Medical School)
“The Alma Ata Declaration of 1978 and the Human Right to Health: Towards an Historical Understanding of Primary Health Care”

Dinner is served at working group meetings. For catering purposes and to receive any pre-circulated materials, RSVP to angelrodriguez@g.harvard.edu