

Medieval Studies Secondary Field Worksheet

The secondary field in Medieval Studies requires five undergraduate courses, specified below:

I. A foundational half-course below the 90 level:

Department: _____ Course number: _____

Course name: _____ Semester/year taken: _____

Note: History and Literature 97a may fulfill this requirement if it focuses upon medieval topics.

II. Three half-courses at the 90 level or above:

1. Department: _____ Course number: _____

Course name: _____ Semester/year taken: _____

2. Department: _____ Course number: _____

Course name: _____ Semester/year taken: _____

3. Department: _____ Course number: _____

Course name: _____ Semester/year taken: _____

Note: These courses should cover three of the four core disciplinary areas of Arts, History, Literature and Language, and Thought and Religion. Each of these advanced courses must be offered by a different department, with the exception of Medieval Studies itself (all three courses can have a Medieval Studies number).

III. One elective half-course at any level:

Department: _____ Course number: _____

Course name: _____ Semester/year taken: _____

This form is for tracking purposes only. The official form, available from the FAS Registrar's office, must be completed by you and signed by the Undergraduate Director of Medieval Studies by the deadline specified for your anticipated graduation date.
