NDSR Boston Applicant Instructions

Application video or online project

The video or online project should answer the question, "Why are you passionate about digital preservation?" The piece does not need to be technically perfect or professionally edited, but it should show your ability to communicate through spoken language and/or visual images. It can use original footage, stock footage, still images, text, screen casts, animations or any other moving image medium you would like to communicate your message. Keep in mind though that we would like to post this online if you are accepted to the program so you should have the rights to use any embedded material. Applications submitted without videos or online projects will not be considered.

Cover letter

The cover letter should provide a clear statement of goals and demonstrate a strong understanding of or interest in digital preservation as a profession. It should also discuss relevant leadership and work experiences.

Reference Letters

References should e-mail their letters to ndsr-boston@hulmail.harvard.edu from their own e-mail accounts with your name and "Reference Letter" in the subject line.

Submit Application by May 30, 2014

Residents create a pdf of the application and supporting documents and email it to ndsr-boston@hulmail.harvard.edu.
