

Harvard Extension School (HES), founded in 1910, is a school of continuing education at Harvard University, offering 800+ courses on campus and online and serving 15,000+, part-time, working adult students each academic year.

Technology Certificates

Back-End Web Development
Cybersecurity

Data Analytics
Data Science

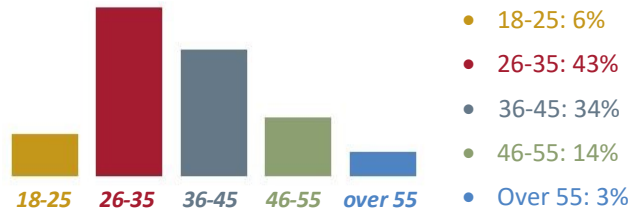

Front-End Web Development
Programming

Web Technologies

Female: 27% Male: 73%

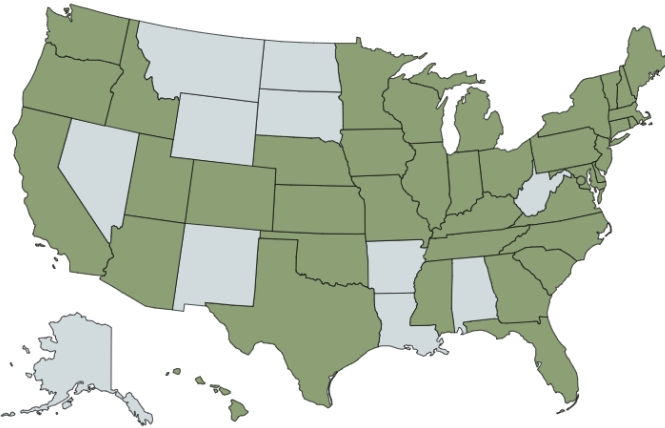

Age range

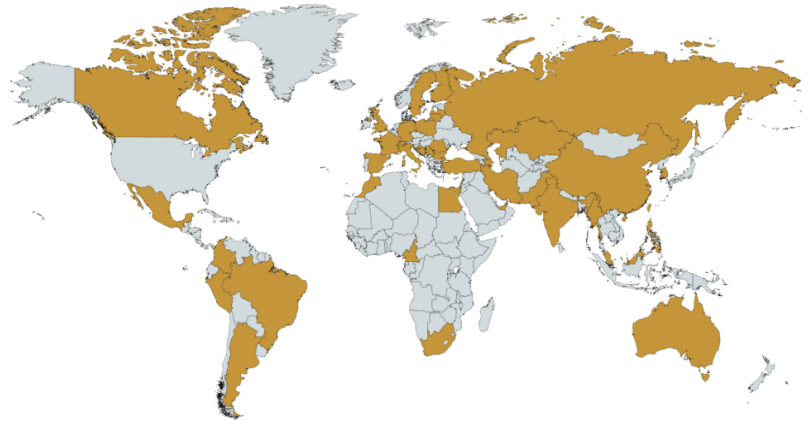

Average age

37

Where our students live

21% live outside the U.S.

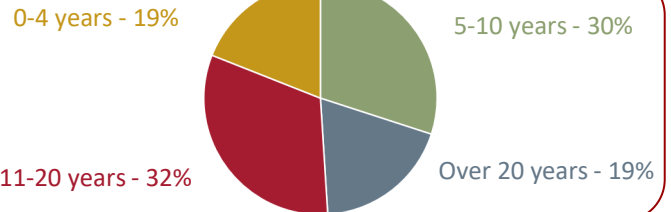

Employment

87% were employed full-time while pursuing a certificate.

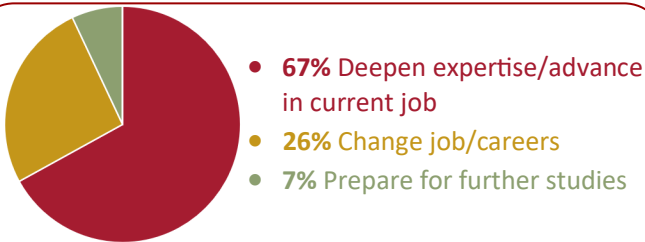

43% report that simply completing coursework toward their certificate contributed to career benefits, including:

- Added job responsibility
- Promotion
- Career change

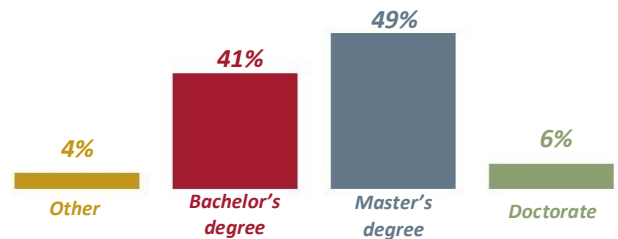

Years of full-time work experience

Reasons for pursuing a certificate

Education level

HES is regionally accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges.

www.extension.harvard.edu

Select companies that employ our certificate earners

Select job titles held by our certificate earners

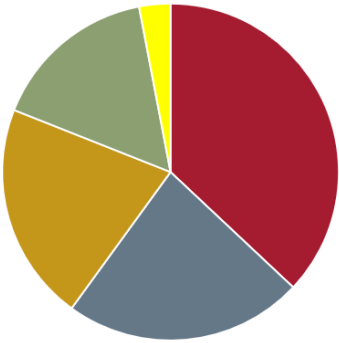

93% of recent certificate earners would recommend a Harvard Extension School certificate.

Average time to certificate completion: 1.5 years

Number of students who have earned a Technology certificate: 1139

14% of certificate earners went on to enroll in a degree program at HES.

- 37% Information Management Systems
- 23% Digital Media Design
- 21% Software Engineering
- 16% Data Science
- 3% Other

For more information, visit extension.harvard.edu/academics/graduate-certificates