

History of Medicine Working Group, Spring 2018

BRAD BOLMAN

JAN 29, Mon, 6-8pm
Science Center 469

Metformin Imaginaries: Transcolonial Biomedicine and Global Knowledge in the Philippines and French Morocco

PHILADELPHIA (1993)

FEB 12, Mon, 6-8pm
Science Center 469

Film screening as part of Prof Allan Brandt's course "The History and Culture of Stigma"

MICHELLE BENTSMAN

FEB 16, Fri, 12-1:30pm
Science Center 252

Songs for the Dying: A Comparative Study of Chant Traditions at Life's Close

STEPHANIE PACHE

FEB 26, Mon, 6-8pm
Science Center 469

Sex, Violence & Public Health: The Political is Personal (United States, 1970 until Today)

STEPHAN RISI

MAR 19, Mon, 12-1:30pm
Science Center 252

How Smoking Became Addictive (Against All Odds): Biology, Technology, and Culture in the Making of the Cigarette Century

THE STIGMA OF MENTAL ILLNESS

MAR 19, Mon, 6-8pm
Science Center 469

A series of short film screenings (titles TBD) as part of Prof Allan Brandt's course "The History and Culture of Stigma"

SHIREEN HAMZA

APR 2, Mon, 6-8pm
Science Center 469

Bloodletters, Bonesetters and Barbers: "Subaltern" Medicine in the Islamic World

BETTINA BOCK VON WÜLFINGEN

APR 16, Mon, 6-8pm
Science Center 469

Annotating, retrieving and reactivating: The epistemic role of labels on micro-preparations within medicine and bioscience recovery systems (using the example of Alzheimer's disease preparations)

MIRIAM RICH

APR 23, Mon, 12-1:30pm
Science Center 252

"It was Discovered To Be a Monster": Mothers, Medical Authority, and "Monstrous" Childbearing in the Nineteenth-Century U.S.

Harvard University Department of the History of Science