

History of Medicine Working Group

Fall 2019

Harvard University Department of History of Science

Fridays | 12 - 1:30pm | Science Center 252
Lunch Served

Sept 13 | Notes from the Field

Featuring research updates from Professors Eram Alam, Allan Brandt, David Jones, and Evelyn Hammonds

Sept 20 | Michelle LaBonte

“Inverting the Medical Gaze: From Pancreatic Lesion on Autopsy to Cystic Fibrosis Symptoms”

Oct 4 | Michael Ortiz

“Carceral Geographies and Imperial Encounters in Guatemala, 1946-1948”

Oct 18 | Notes from the Field + CHoM Info Session

Featuring research updates from graduate students Molly Nebiolo and Timothy Loh

Oct 28 | Deborah Doroshow

“From Disturbed to Adjusted: Remaking Deviant Children in Mid-Twentieth Century America”

*Please note: this event takes place on a Monday

Nov 8 | Emily Harrison

“Useful Accounts of the Truth in Public Health Science”

Nov 15 | Lina Pinto

“Back to Duty Rather than Back to Health: Leishmaniasis and the Colombian Army”

Contact: harvardhmwg@gmail.com