

FALL 2015

History of Medicine Working Group

- SEPT. 14 Opening Panel Discussion with Profs. Allan M. Brandt, David S. Jones, and Susan M. Reverby
- SEPT. 21 Colleen Lanier-Christensen (History of Science)
“Managing a ‘Moon Shot’ for Cancer: Contract Research at the National Cancer Institute”
- SEPT. 28 Nils Hansson (University of Cologne)
“Enacting Excellency: Awarding Nobel Prizes (or Not) to Surgeons in the Twentieth Century”
- OCT. 5 Frank Blibo (History of Science)
“The ‘New’ Scientific Racism and the Misjudgment of Man: Rationalizing Human Difference in a (Post)-Genomic Age”
- OCT. 19 James T. Downs (Visiting Fellow in Medical Anthropology and The Weatherhead Initiative on Global History)
“The Coefficient in Epidemiology: The International Cholera Epidemics and the American Civil War”
- OCT. 26 Diane Paul (University of Massachusetts Boston and Harvard Museum of Comparative Zoology)
“Truby King, Infant Welfare, and the Boundaries of Eugenics”
- Nov. 2 Lucas Müller (HASTS Program, MIT)
“Breaking the Toxic Mold: Aflatoxin and the Making of Cancer Research in the Postcolonial World, 1960–2015”
- Nov. 9 John Gee (History)
“Applied Anthropology and Cultural Preservation: U.S.–Mexico Connections”
- Nov. 30 Michael Knipper (Justus Liebig University and Harvard Medical School)
“The Alma Ata Declaration of 1978 and the Human Right to Health: Towards an Historical Understanding of Primary Health Care”

Dinner is served at working group meetings. For catering purposes and to receive any pre-circulated materials, RSVP to angelrodriguez@g.harvard.edu

MONDAYS 6-8pm
Science Center 469
1 OXFORD ST., CAMBRIDGE MA

FALL 2015

History of Medicine Working Group

- SEPT. 14 Opening Panel Discussion with Profs. Allan M. Brandt, David S. Jones, and Susan M. Reverby
- SEPT. 21 Colleen Lanier-Christensen (History of Science)
“Managing a ‘Moon Shot’ for Cancer: Contract Research at the National Cancer Institute”
- SEPT. 28 Nils Hansson (University of Cologne)
“Enacting Excellency: Awarding Nobel Prizes (or Not) to Surgeons in the Twentieth Century”
- OCT. 5 Frank Blibo (History of Science)
“The ‘New’ Scientific Racism and the Misjudgment of Man: Rationalizing Human Difference in a (Post)-Genomic Age”
- OCT. 19 James T. Downs (Visiting Fellow in Medical Anthropology and The Weatherhead Initiative on Global History)
“The Coefficient in Epidemiology: The International Cholera Epidemics and the American Civil War”
- OCT. 26 Diane Paul (University of Massachusetts Boston and Harvard Museum of Comparative Zoology)
“Truby King, Infant Welfare, and the Boundaries of Eugenics”
- Nov. 2 Lucas Müller (HASTS Program, MIT)
“Breaking the Toxic Mold: Aflatoxin and the Making of Cancer Research in the Postcolonial World, 1960–2015”
- Nov. 9 John Gee (History)
“Applied Anthropology and Cultural Preservation: U.S.–Mexico Connections”
- Nov. 30 Michael Knipper (Justus Liebig University and Harvard Medical School)
“The Alma Ata Declaration of 1978 and the Human Right to Health: Towards an Historical Understanding of Primary Health Care”

Dinner is served at working group meetings. For catering purposes and to receive any pre-circulated materials, RSVP to angelrodriguez@g.harvard.edu

MONDAYS 6-8pm

 Science Center 469
 1 OXFORD ST., CAMBRIDGE MA

FALL 2015

History of Medicine Working Group

- SEPT. 14 Opening Panel Discussion with Profs. Allan M. Brandt, David S. Jones, and Susan M. Reverby
- SEPT. 21 Colleen Lanier-Christensen (History of Science)
“Managing a ‘Moon Shot’ for Cancer: Contract Research at the National Cancer Institute”
- SEPT. 28 Nils Hansson (University of Cologne)
“Enacting Excellency: Awarding Nobel Prizes (or Not) to Surgeons in the Twentieth Century”
- OCT. 5 Frank Blibo (History of Science)
“The ‘New’ Scientific Racism and the Misjudgment of Man: Rationalizing Human Difference in a (Post)-Genomic Age”
- OCT. 19 James T. Downs (Visiting Fellow in Medical Anthropology and The Weatherhead Initiative on Global History)
“The Coefficient in Epidemiology: The International Cholera Epidemics and the American Civil War”
- OCT. 26 Diane Paul (University of Massachusetts Boston and Harvard Museum of Comparative Zoology)
“Truby King, Infant Welfare, and the Boundaries of Eugenics”
- Nov. 2 Lucas Müller (HASTS Program, MIT)
“Breaking the Toxic Mold: Aflatoxin and the Making of Cancer Research in the Postcolonial World, 1960–2015”
- Nov. 9 John Gee (History)
“Applied Anthropology and Cultural Preservation: U.S.–Mexico Connections”
- Nov. 30 Michael Knipper (Justus Liebig University and Harvard Medical School)
“The Alma Ata Declaration of 1978 and the Human Right to Health: Towards an Historical Understanding of Primary Health Care”

Dinner is served at working group meetings. For catering purposes and to receive any pre-circulated materials, RSVP to angelrodriguez@g.harvard.edu

MONDAYS 6-8pm
Science Center 469
1 OXFORD ST., CAMBRIDGE MA

FALL 2015

History of Medicine Working Group

- SEPT. 14 Opening Panel Discussion with Profs. Allan M. Brandt, David S. Jones, and Susan M. Reverby
- SEPT. 21 Colleen Lanier-Christensen (History of Science)
"Managing a 'Moon Shot' for Cancer: Contract Research at the National Cancer Institute"
- SEPT. 28 Nils Hansson (University of Cologne)
"Enacting Excellency: Awarding Nobel Prizes (or Not) to Surgeons in the Twentieth Century"
- OCT. 5 Frank Blibo (History of Science)
"The 'New' Scientific Racism and the Misjudgment of Man: Rationalizing Human Difference in a (Post)-Genomic Age"
- OCT. 19 James T. Downs (Visiting Fellow in Medical Anthropology and The Weatherhead Initiative on Global History)
"The Coefficient in Epidemiology: The International Cholera Epidemics and the American Civil War"
- OCT. 26 Diane Paul (University of Massachusetts Boston and Harvard Museum of Comparative Zoology)
"Truby King, Infant Welfare, and the Boundaries of Eugenics"
- Nov. 2 Lucas Müller (HASTS Program, MIT)
"Breaking the Toxic Mold: Aflatoxin and the Making of Cancer Research in the Postcolonial World, 1960–2015"
- Nov. 9 John Gee (History)
"Applied Anthropology and Cultural Preservation: U.S.–Mexico Connections"
- Nov. 30 Michael Knipper (Justus Liebig University and Harvard Medical School)
"The Alma Ata Declaration of 1978 and the Human Right to Health: Towards an Historical Understanding of Primary Health Care"

Dinner is served at working group meetings. For catering purposes and to receive any pre-circulated materials, RSVP to angelrodriguez@g.harvard.edu

MONDAYS 6-8pm Science Center 469

1 OXFORD ST., CAMBRIDGE MA